Important Questions about Fasting in Ramadān

When should I make my intention to Fast?

Hafsa cited the Prophet ﷺ say: "Whoever does not make intention to fast at night (before fajr), then there is no fast for him." [See Sahīh Abi Dāwūd (no.219) & al-Irwā', al-Albānī (4/45)]

Should I eat the pre-dawn meal (Suhūr)?

Anas ibn Mālik cited the Prophet ﷺ say: "Eat the pre-dawn meal (suhūr) because there are blessings in it." [Reported by al-Būkhārī no.1923].

When do I start fasting?

Samūrah ibn Jundūb cited the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say: "Let not the call to prayer of Bilal stop any of you from his pre-dawn meal (suhūr), nor the whiteness on the horizon which rises vertically like this, until it spreads horizontally like this." [See Muslim (no.1094/43)].

Is my supplication answered when I'm fasting?

Anas ibn Mālik cited the Prophet say: "Three supplications are not rejected: the supplication of a father, the supplication of a fasting person, and the supplication of a traveler." [See as-Sahīhah, al-Albānī (no.1797)]

When do I break my fast?

Sahl ibn Sa'd cited the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say: "The people will continue to be upon good as long as they hasten to break their fast." [See al-Būkhārī (no.1856)]. The fast should be broken at sunset.

What should I break my fast with?

Anas ibn Mālik said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to break his fast with ripe dates before praying; if there were none available, then with use dry dates, and if there were none available then he would take a few sips of water.'" [See al-Irwā', al-Albānī (4/45)]

What should I say when breaking fast?

'Abdullāh ibn 'Umar said: "when the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ broke fast, he would say

دَهَبَ الظَّمَأُ وَأَبْتَلَّتِ الْعُرُوْقُ وَتَبَّتِ الْأَجْرُ إِنَّ شَاءَ اللَّهُ

"The thirst has gone, the veins have been moistened and the reward is confirmed, if Allāh wills.'" [See al-Irwā', al-Albānī (4/39)]
